Unaccompanied Child Refugees: It is estimated that there are as many as 200 unaccompanied children in the refugee camp at Calais known as "The Jungle." The plight of these children is of great concern and the gospel so often reminds us of the need to care for the vulnerable, in particular the "Widow and Orphan." In consequence, our Corporal Works of Mercy Group have written a letter to both David Cameron and our local MP John Woodcock urging urgent action to protect and care for these children. If you wish to support this initiative please sign the petition accompanying the letter at the back of church.
